Watch Interviews

Working with DHN/Wire19 is always quick and frictionless. They understand the industry and what makes a story newsworthy, and thanks to their reach with the relevant audience, a mention from them helps us increase the traffic our featured content receives by about 4x.

Larissa Murillo,
Marketing Manager, marketgoo

Working with the ZNet across its Wire19 and Daily Host News media sites has been a particularly smooth and fruitful experience. The publications have increased visibility in the b2b technology target markets for several of our clients. The publication group does a great job of bringing valuable and actionable content to its audience, we'll absolutely be continuing to work with ZNet.

Kyle Peterson,
Partner, Clement Peterson

Our Team

Being an insider in the IT industry, we know what our readers are most interested in or should be more aware of. An IT magazine that promotes thought leadership, DHN can also benefit the interested industry members by helping them transform their knowledge into business value.
